

Foodie Finds

Appleberry Orchard

2469 Highway 2

Donnellson, Iowa 52625

319-372-1307

<https://appleberryorchard.com>

Relive childhood memories of going to the apple orchard with a trip to Appleberry Orchard, the oldest working orchard in the State of Iowa. At Appleberry, you can pick your own apples right off the tree branch, or shop the inside cooler where many different varieties of apples are ready for you to take home. For a real treat, have a cup of their apple cider slush. Sink your teeth into fresh apple cider donuts or watch the caramel apple pies come out of the oven, all made fresh on site. And be sure to take home your pumpkins, gourds and squash for the hearty fall meals.

Bonaparte Retreat

Bonaparte, Iowa 52620

319-592-3339

<http://bonaparteretreat.com/>

Bonaparte Retreat is known far and wide for its hearty country cooking. Housed in a restored 1878 grist mill, enjoy some home cooked meals in a unique, friendly atmosphere. You might even be waited on by the lady who is possibly Iowa's oldest waitress at 94 years young. Bonaparte Retreat is a favorite of locals and travelers.

Dutchman's Store

103 Division Street

Cantril, Iowa 52542

319-397-2322

<https://www.dutchmansstore.com>

For a truly unique shopping experience, stop by Dutchman's Store. This old-time general store will have all the supplies you need. The Pennsylvania Dutch, family owned store has a wide selection of bulk foods, locally grown produce and foods preserved in the local Amish community. And if you are in need of some new shoes or craft items, you can find them at the Dutchman's Store as well.

Milton Creamery

202 E. Highway 2

Milton, Iowa 52570

641-656-4094

<https://miltoncreamery.com/>

While in southeast Iowa you must stop at Milton Creamery, a Mennonite family owned business. Homemade cheeses are made with milk from small, locally owned herds with no artificial growth hormones. At the 2009US Cheese Championship, Milton Creamery's Prairie Breeze™ cheese won Best of Class in the Open Hard category. Pick your favorite cheeses at their onsite tasting, while watching cheese in the making. Before you depart, purchase your favorite cheese in the retail shop.

The Red Shed

21021 Jewel Ave.

Bloomfield, Iowa 52537

641-664-1213

The Red Shed is a locally owned restaurant that offers a variety of made-to-order sandwiches all on fresh homemade bread with an offering of meats and cheeses. Watch handmade chocolates being created as you browse the cases full of chocolates, pies and pastries. The Red Shed also offers in season produce. Relax in this homey atmosphere while enjoying lunch, or make this your one stop shop for your picnic needs.